Australian in nets controversy

Star Aussie batsman Conan Fulton was at the center of a scheduling controversy last week. "Strewth," he commented, "first they said nets was on Saturday, then they change it to Sunday. I don't know whether I'm coming or going." A spokesman for the executive explained, "Yes, originally they were on Saturday. But then we changed it."

"It's all terribly confusing," Fulton continued. "I had to get special permission from the missus, and now she's all hacked off at me."

When asked if any further changes were likely, the club spokesman commented, "Not at this stage. If it's Saturday, or Sunday, it might change to Sunday, or Saturday, depending on which day it is."

"That's easy for them to say," fumed Fulton.

This Month's Curry Recipe: Chicken Madras

By our cookery editor, Phil Space.

- 4 chicken breasts, cubed.
- 2 onions, chopped.
- 4 large tomatoes, chopped.
- ½ inch piece ginger, grated.
- 2-3 chilies, finely chopped (or more, if you're brave.)
- 2 tsp garam masala
- 1 tsp turmeric.
- ½ pint water.

Lightly fry the two onions. Add tomatoes, chilies, garam masala, turmeric, water, and cook for 10 minutes. Puree the mixture in a blender and set aside. Brown the chicken with the ginger, then add the sauce and cook for 40-45 minutes. Serve with rice and naan bread, and eat while reading this newsletter. P.S. Lamb may be substituted for the chicken..
